

POSSIBILITIES

MARCHING TO THE BEAT OF POSSIBILITY

When Julie Yuspeh Benson read of the Rabouin High School Band's commitment to marching in Mardi Gras 2006, even though most of the students had been rendered homeless by Katrina and the school's band director had been recently murdered, she was, in her own words, "in awe of these kids' perseverance despite the tragedies they'd been through." She created a fund at the Greater New Orleans Foundation—NOLA Kids Rising—to support high school music programs. "These kids helped me believe in possibilities when I didn't know how our city would pull through, and I want to make sure someone does the same for them," says Benson.

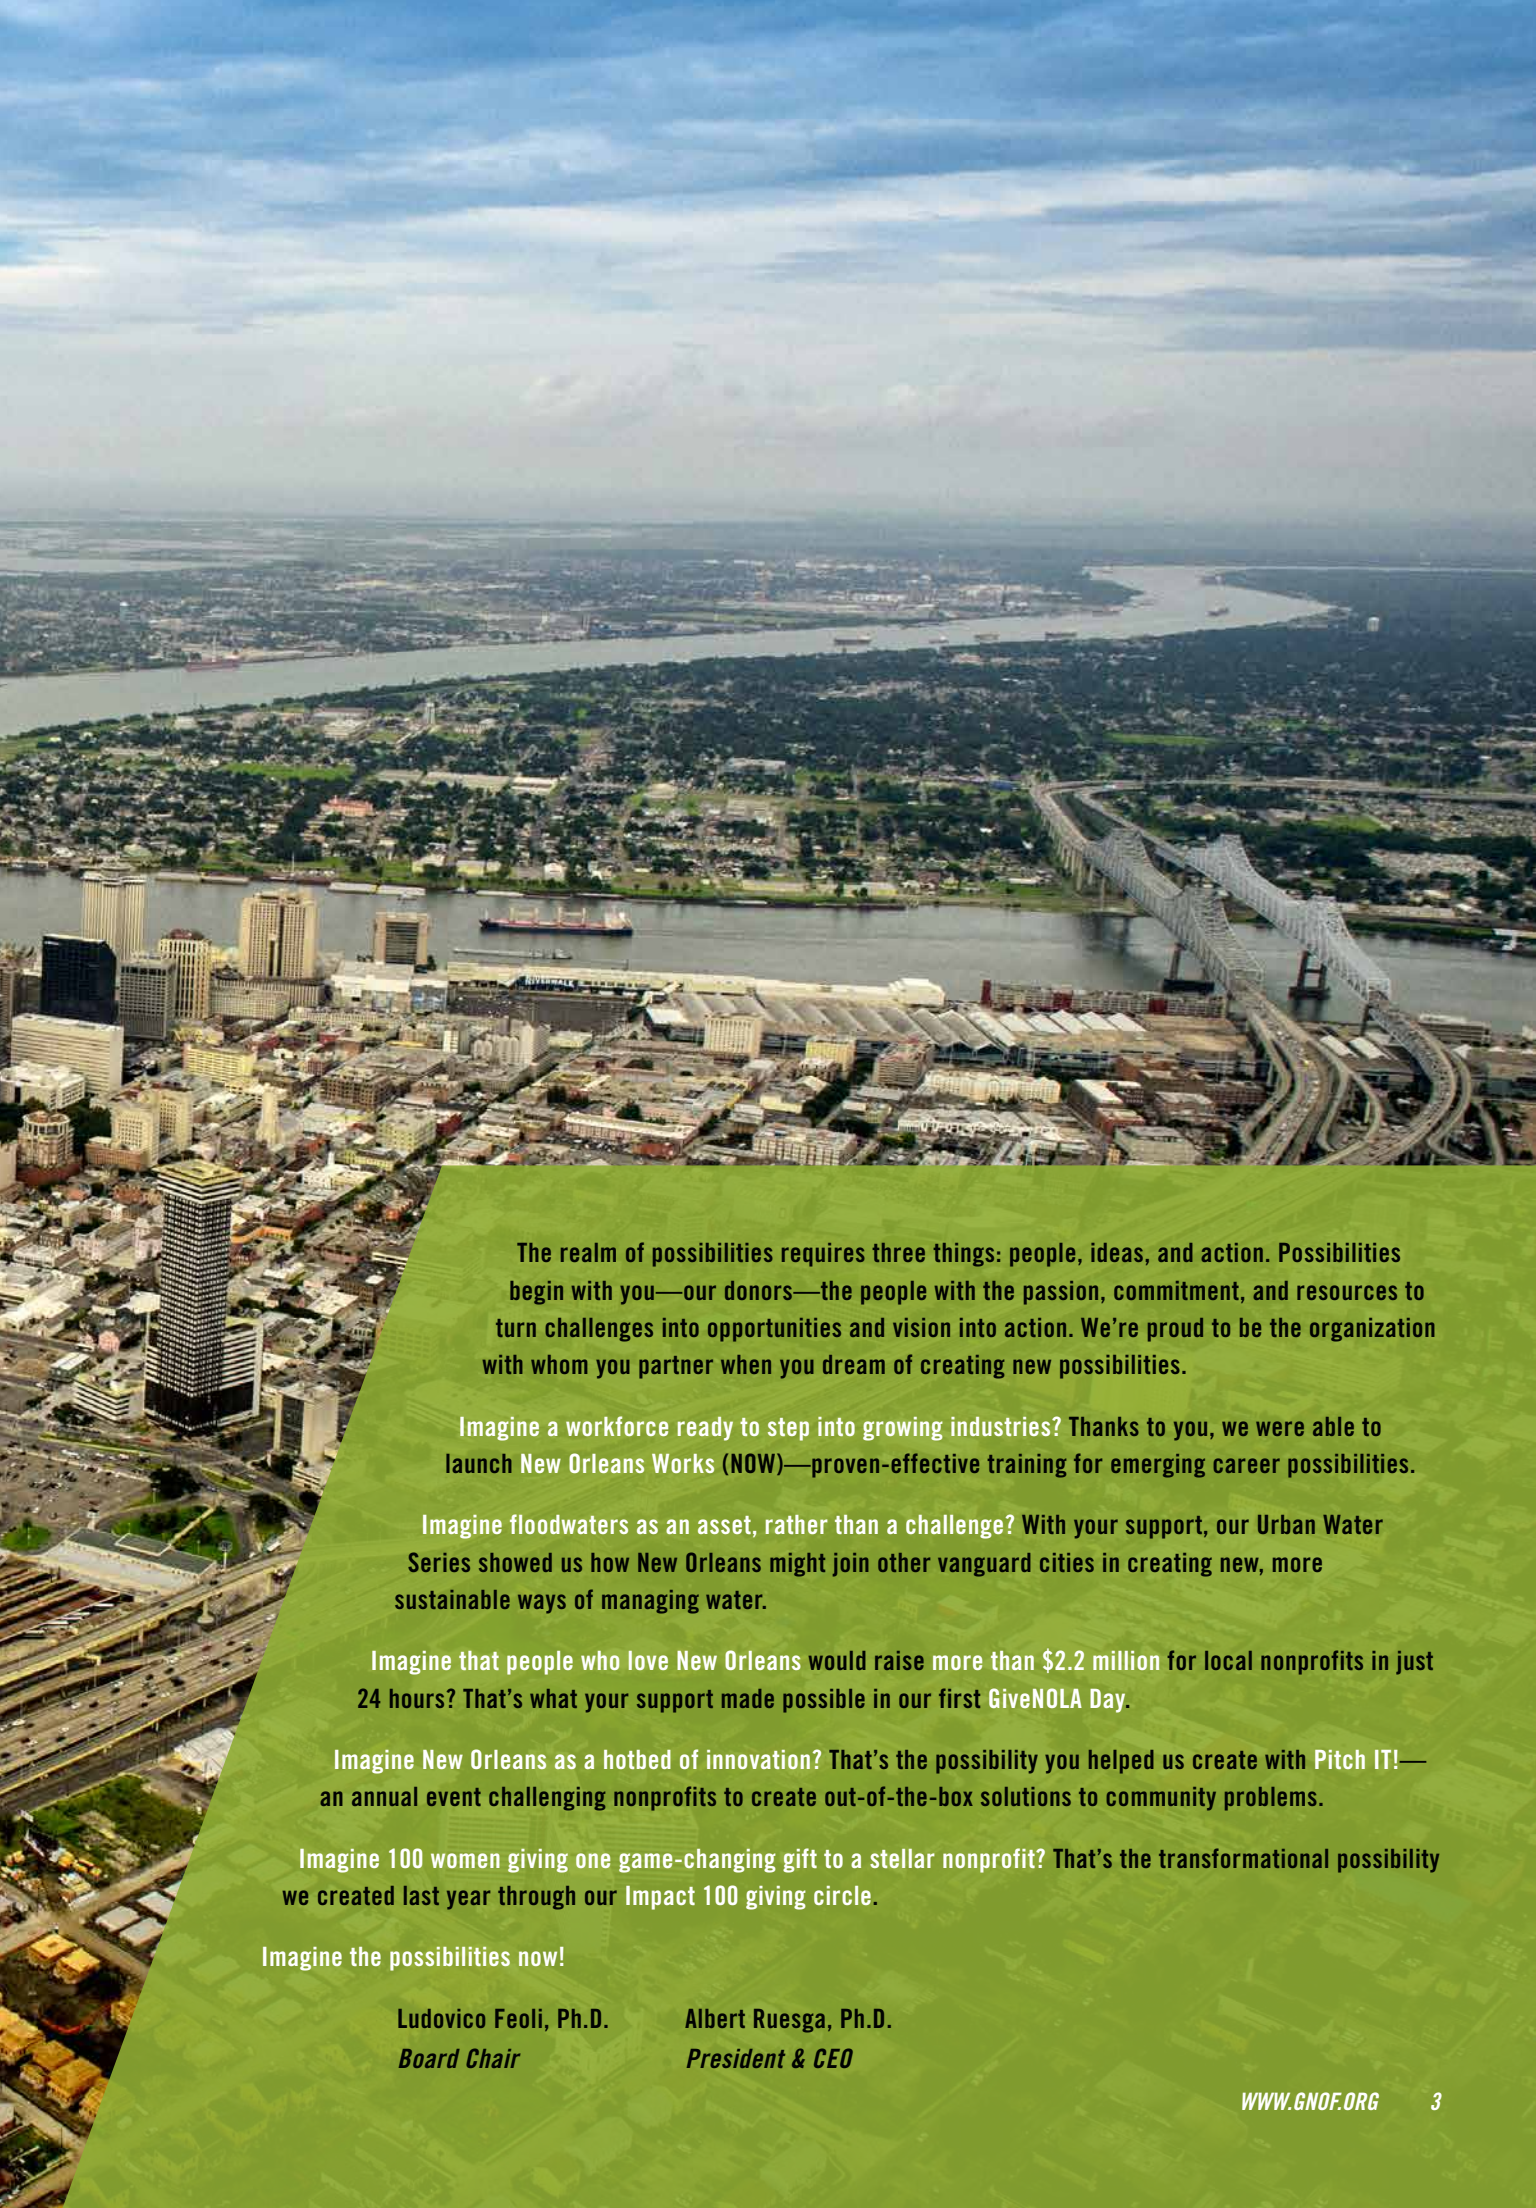

START HERE!

Possibilities begin with people. People with a passion for making a difference. People who refuse to be cowed by circumstances. People who respond to both needs and opportunities. People who turn to the Greater New Orleans Foundation when they want to collaborate with other change-makers, address challenges, brainstorm solutions, and fund possibilities. Since 1983, we've been a center around which people gather to make the Greater New Orleans region a vibrant community for all.

LOOKING FOR POSSIBILITIES?
START HERE.

The realm of possibilities requires three things: people, ideas, and action. Possibilities begin with you—our donors—the people with the passion, commitment, and resources to turn challenges into opportunities and vision into action. We're proud to be the organization with whom you partner when you dream of creating new possibilities.

Imagine a workforce ready to step into growing industries? Thanks to you, we were able to launch New Orleans Works (NOW)—proven-effective training for emerging career possibilities.

Imagine floodwaters as an asset, rather than a challenge? With your support, our Urban Water Series showed us how New Orleans might join other vanguard cities in creating new, more sustainable ways of managing water.

Imagine that people who love New Orleans would raise more than $2.2 million for local nonprofits in just 24 hours? That's what your support made possible in our first GiveNOLA Day.

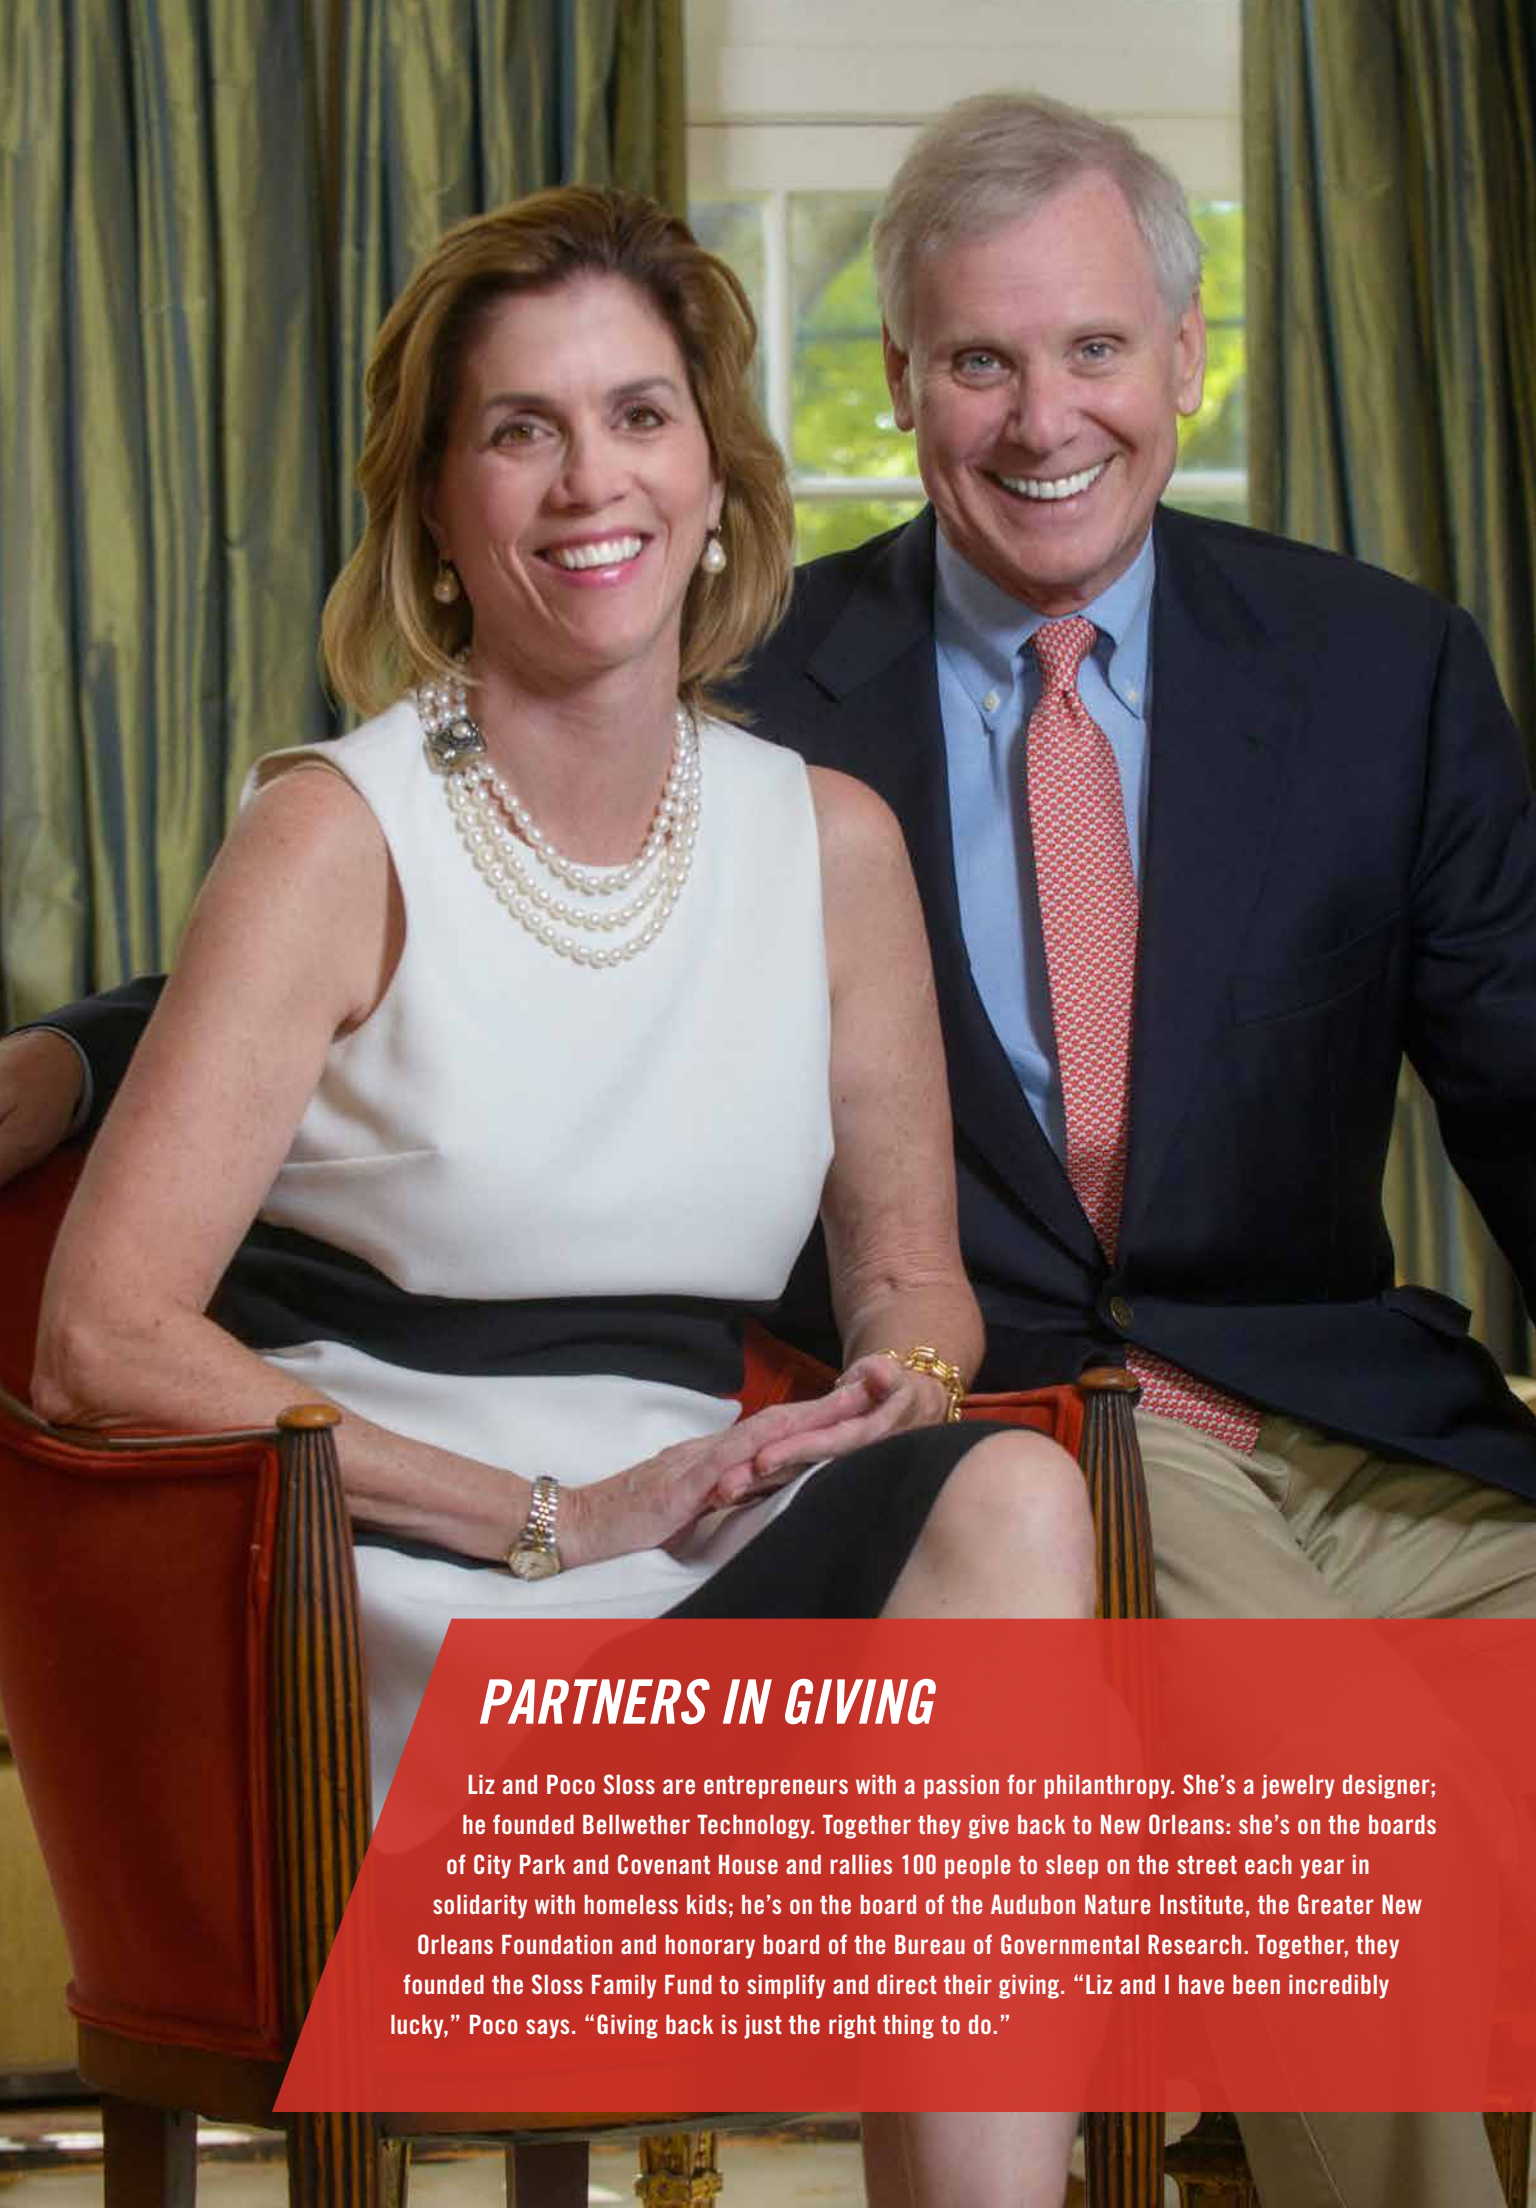

Imagine New Orleans as a hotbed of innovation? That's the possibility you helped us create with Pitch IT!—an annual event challenging nonprofits to create out-of-the-box solutions to community problems.

Imagine 100 women giving one game-changing gift to a stellar nonprofit? That's the transformational possibility we created last year through our Impact 100 giving circle.

Imagine the possibilities now!

PARTNERS IN GIVING

Liz and Poco Sloss are entrepreneurs with a passion for philanthropy. She's a jewelry designer; he founded Bellwether Technology. Together they give back to New Orleans: she's on the boards of City Park and Covenant House and rallies 100 people to sleep on the street each year in solidarity with homeless kids; he's on the board of the Audubon Nature Institute, the Greater New Orleans Foundation and honorary board of the Bureau of Governmental Research. Together, they founded the Sloss Family Fund to simplify and direct their giving. "Liz and I have been incredibly lucky," Poco says. "Giving back is just the right thing to do."

MAKING GIVING A FAMILY AFFAIR

Philanthropy is a way of life for four generations of the Danos family. Through a donor-advised fund, the Danoses support strategic investments in education and human services in Lafourche and Terrebonne parishes. “We all get together and review the applications, make our selections, and hand-deliver the checks,” says René Danos David, granddaughter of fund founders Allen and Thelma Danos. “That’s the part we love—learning about our community’s needs and seeing the difference our gifts can make.” Each family member also carries a two-dollar bill in their wallet, “to remind us that my father started his business with just two dollars in his wallet—and without the benefit of an education,” says Allen Jr. “That’s why we’re big supporters of education now.”

PHILANTHROPY AS A WAY OF DOING BUSINESS

“Human and organizational capacity-building are central to Chevron achieving its core philanthropic mission,” says Sakari Morrison, Chevron’s manager of policy, government, and public affairs. “It’s the primary reason we invested in the Greater New Orleans Foundation’s new Center for Philanthropy—and particularly its Nonprofit Learning Center.” Upon its completion in 2016, donors, nonprofits, and industry leaders will convene at the Chevron Nonprofit Learning Center to share best practices, develop leadership skills, and collaborate in innovation. “By strengthening the effectiveness of nonprofits that serve the region where our employees work and live, we’re improving the quality of life for all,” says Mike Illanne, Vice President, Chevron Gulf of Mexico business unit.

SMALL GIFTS ADD UP TO A BIG IMPACT

GNOF's first online giving day, designed to inspire people who love New Orleans and our region (no matter where they live) to give generously to the local nonprofits of their choice, shattered all our goals and aspirations, proving once again that people power philanthropy.

THE POWER OF COLLABORATIVE GIVING

Impact 100 brings together 100 women, each donating $1,100 to collectively make one transformative gift of $100,000 to a worthy nonprofit in the Greater New Orleans region—one each year. These transformative grants are game-changers for the recipient nonprofits—and, over time, for our region. The recipient of the first Impact 100 grant was Youth Empowerment Project (YEP), a nonprofit serving more than 1,000 youth and their families in and around Central City. As one Impact 100 member explained, “It was very satisfying to donate $1,000 and see it grow almost overnight to $100,000—all from women who care deeply about this community.”

PARTNERS IN PHILANTHROPY

“I believe in the Kwanzaa principle of Ujima, collective work and responsibility. I’ve seen how important the Greater New Orleans Foundation is to this region and experienced its impact in my own life, so of course I want to be a partner in its philanthropy.”

Makiah Moody, governance initiatives director at the Louisiana Association of Public Charter Schools

OUR PARTNERS IN PHILANTHROPY

Contributions to our Partners in Philanthropy enable the Foundation to direct significant sums of money to important community projects. These gifts cover the Foundation's operating expenses and enable it to continue its role of connecting donors to community needs.

LEAVING A LEGACY: THE POSSIBILITIES ARE ENDLESS

Jane Kohlmann knows a lot about giving back. As a volunteer champion of innumerable nonprofit organizations, Jane's plan now is to give forward. By including a gift to the Greater New Orleans Foundation in her will, her legacy gift will support the community for generations to come.

1923 LEGACY SOCIETY

The 1923 Society recognizes the founding of the Community Chest, our predecessor, and honors those forward thinking individuals who have let the Foundation know that they plan to leave a gift to the community through a bequest, trust, life insurance policy, retirement plan, or charitable gift annuity. The Foundation extends its gratitude to the members below for making New Orleans a better place for all in the future.

WHERE POSSIBILITIES COME TO LIFE

The Greater New Orleans Foundation is uniquely positioned to bring the true power of philanthropy to the issues facing our community. Our expert program staff uses their broad knowledge, local expertise, and extensive community relationships to galvanize solutions to complex issues in our core programmatic areas: economic opportunity, workforce development, organizational effectiveness, preserving and restoring the environment, education, human services, and supporting arts and artists. Every day, we collaborate with nonprofit organizations, the private sector, government, donors, and other foundations to address the ever-changing needs of our communities and brainstorm possibilities for transforming crises into opportunities.

To view a complete list of all grantmaking opportunities offered by the Foundation, please visit www.gnof.org/receive. All eligibility requirements are available online.

INVESTING IN HUMAN POTENTIAL: NEW ORLEANS WORKS (NOW)

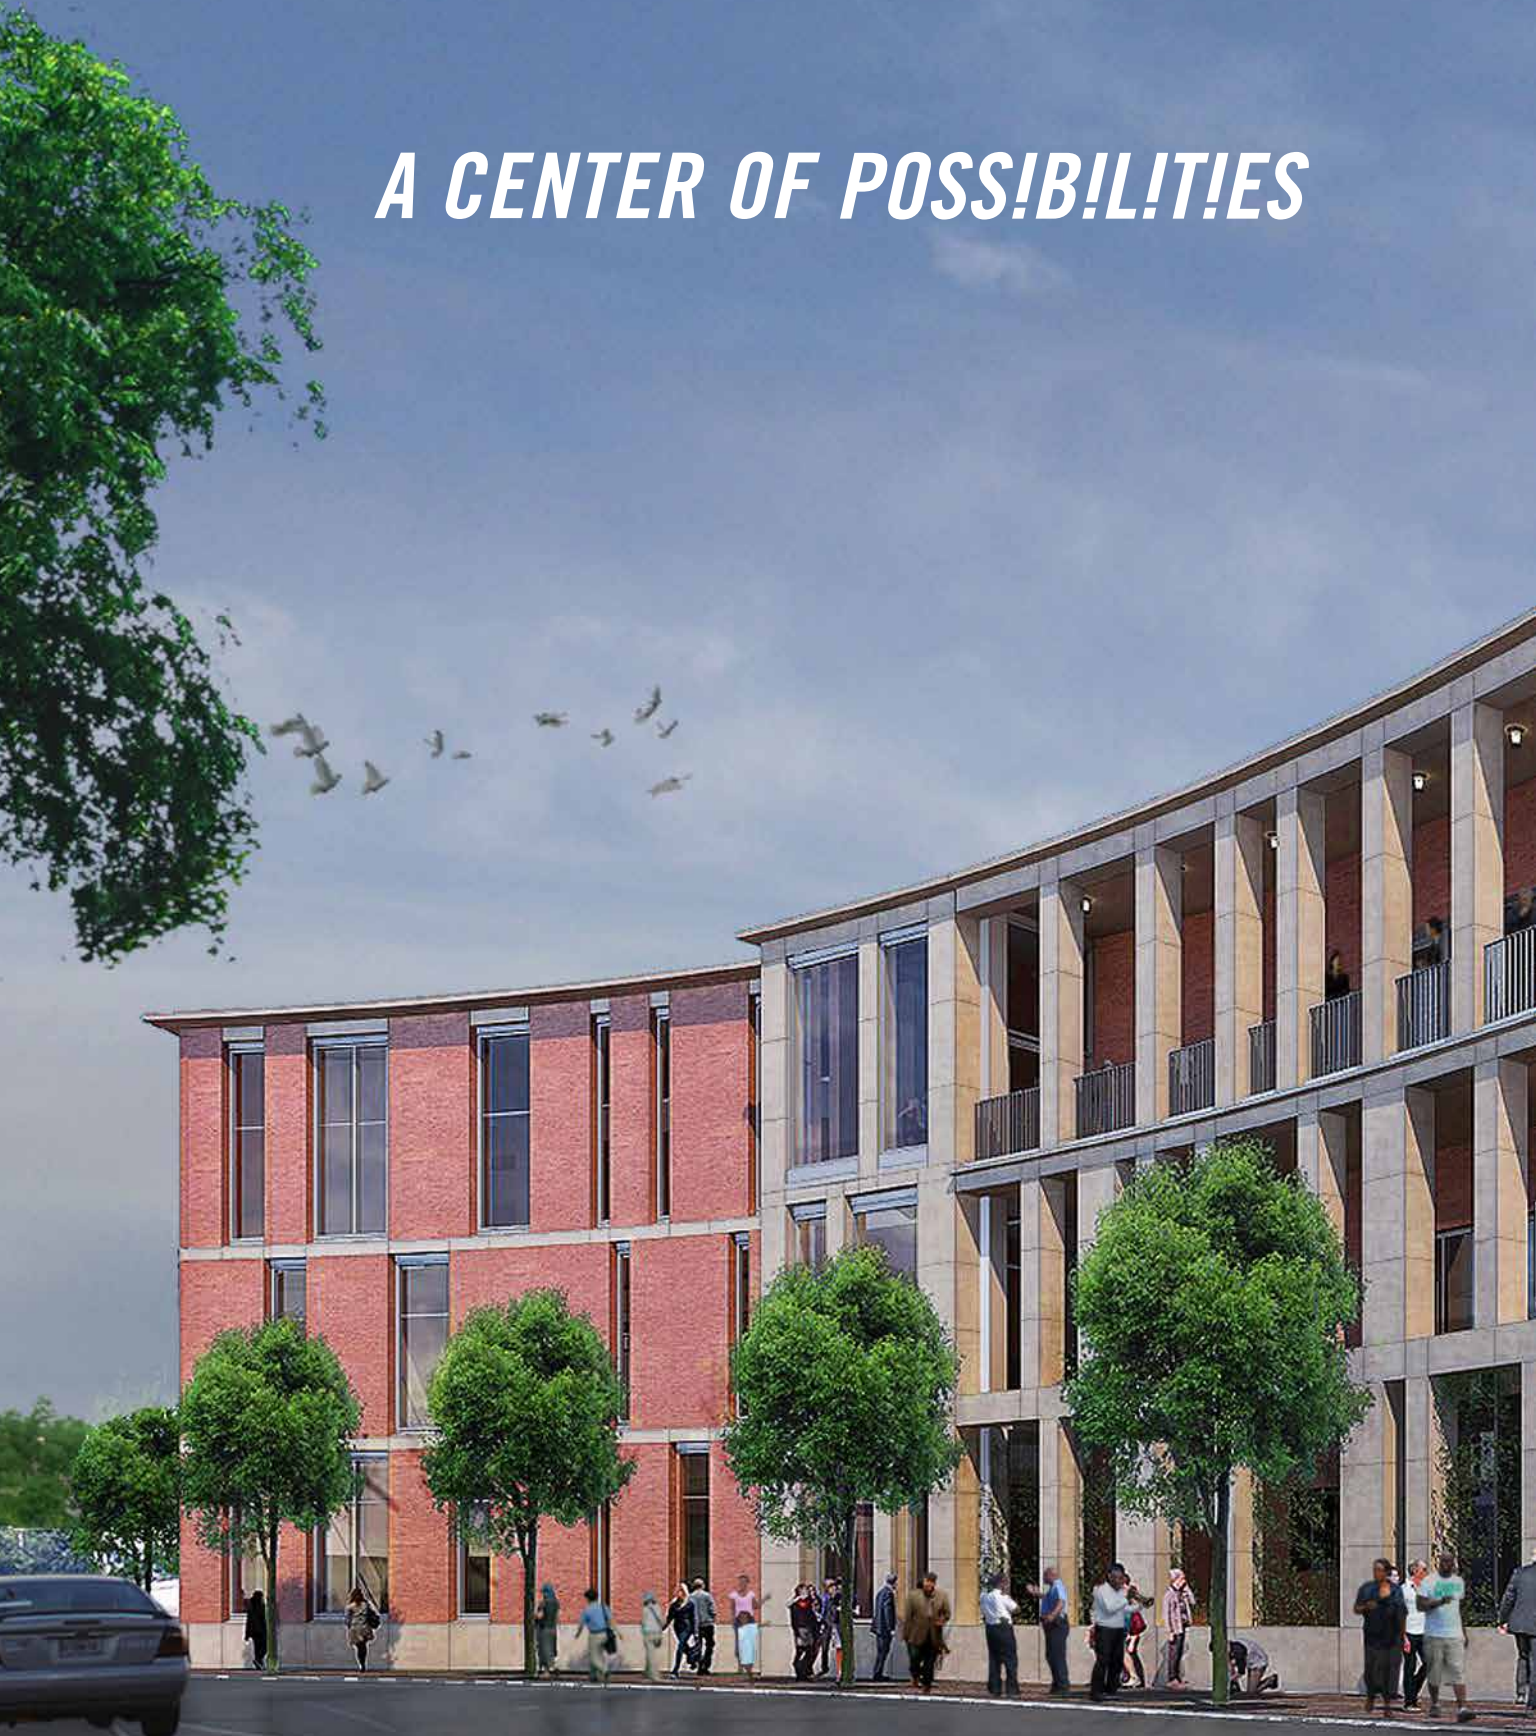

Julia Pierce was in a dead-end job, looking for a way out, when her career advisor told her about New Orleans Works (NOW). One of the Greater New Orleans Foundation's most successful programs, NOW identifies unfilled entry-level jobs and trains people to fill them. The training is free to workers, provides immediate economic security, and also offers the opportunity for professional growth and career advancement. After 16 weeks of classes at Delgado Community College, Pierce got a job as a medical assistant at Ochsner Baptist Medical Center. Her 49 classmates were also offered jobs. "It's an excellent career," Pierce says, "but if I build on this foundation, I can become a nurse." She's now back at Delgado studying to do just that.

CREATING POSSIBILITIES FOR FINANCIAL SECURITY

Nearly 40 percent of New Orleans households live in asset poverty—insufficient savings to survive at the federal poverty level for three months should they lose their main source of income. Even a small savings—$500—can make a big difference in a family’s ability to handle an unexpected car repair, dental bill, or emergency evacuation. The Greater New Orleans Foundation’s Economic Opportunity initiative convenes a community of nonprofits committed to providing families with the financial education, tools, and resources to become self-sufficient. Harmony Neighborhood Development works with families in New Orleans’ Central City, where it helped one client, Sharline Love, purchase her home. Now Sharline has a stake in her neighborhood and plans to open Big Mama’s Barbeque a few blocks away.

A CENTER OF POSSIBILITIES

For more information and to see additional renderings of the Center for Philanthropy, please visit www.gnof.org/centerforphilanthropy.org.

THE CENTER FOR PHILANTHROPY

Like the hub of a wheel, the Greater New Orleans Foundation stands at the center of many of our region's possibilities, bringing together donors, nonprofit organizations, local and national foundations, entrepreneurs, and others committed to addressing our community's needs. By being a place where people, ideas, and action come together, the Center for Philanthropy will be a headquarters for both discourse and action on the top challenges facing our community.

Our new Center for Philanthropy, which your generosity funded and which will open its doors in early 2016, will not only serve as the Foundation's new home, but as the headquarters for philanthropic possibilities for the entire Greater New Orleans region.

Here, the Chevron Nonprofit Learning Center will be an institute for nonprofit excellence—convening nonprofits, sector experts and innovators to share best practices, support emerging leaders, and brainstorm innovations for creating a vibrant region for all.

Through these doors, community stakeholders will enter and community solutions will emerge.

EXPLORING ENVIRONMENTAL POSSIBILITIES

New Orleanians live in close proximity to their environment: water and weather are never far from our minds. Last year the Greater New Orleans Foundation and the Urban Institute partnered to present “Urban Water Series: Strategies That Work,” exploring how other U.S. cities are turning their water challenges into water assets through green infrastructure such as permeable streetscapes, bioswales, green roofs, bayous and rain gardens. To further encourage entrepreneurial solutions to how we live and work with water, the Greater New Orleans Foundation partners with the Idea Village in the annual Water Challenge. This year’s $50,000 award went to ORA Estuaries to protect our shorelines through the creation of modular oyster reefs.

PITCH IT!

INNOVATION CREATES POSSIBILITIES

UNITY of Greater New Orleans threw the winning pitch at the Greater New Orleans Foundation's first Pitch It! Innovation Challenge. Emily Danielson, UNITY's director of research and public policy, proposed a "Super Tool" that allows the region's 60 homeless agencies to coordinate services, save applicants from endlessly re-entering the same data, and zero in on what a person needs to end their homelessness. "Nonprofits aren't often encouraged to take risks because a failure could jeopardize funding," Danielson says. "But Pitch It! actually challenged us to step back and consider an innovative approach."

“When our clients are passionate about a cause, have a strong desire to give back, or leave a legacy, the Greater New Orleans Foundation is the perfect partner for meeting those goals,”

SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS

Supporting Organizations at the Greater New Orleans Foundation play an important role in addressing the needs of the region. Supporting Organizations are separate nonprofit organizations with IRS tax-exempt status. They have a separate board of directors, manage their own investments, and award their own grants. With professional management and oversight of all aspects of the supporting foundation's administrative, investment, and grantmaking activities performed by the Greater New Orleans Foundation, donors and their families can concentrate on their individual philanthropic interests without worrying about the details.

MAISON HOSPITALIÈRE FOUNDATION (2008)

In 1879 Coralie Correjollès organized 30 women into "La Société des Dames Hospitalières" to provide food and medicine to the impoverished women of New Orleans. Through its collection of 10 cent monthly dues over 14 years, the Société was able to raise enough money to purchase its first building at 822 Barracks Street. Over the next 113 years, Maison Hospitalière evolved into a skilled nursing home for men and women. In 2006, after Hurricane Katrina scattered residents and staff, the board decided to close the home. Proceeds from the sale were incorporated into a supporting organization administered by the Greater New Orleans Foundation. Maison's mission continues through grants to organizations that provide living assistance, medical, and hospice care to indigent women in the Greater New Orleans area.

JOHN AND CLARA BRADY FOUNDATION (2000)

The John and Clara Brady Foundation was established to fund their philanthropic interests in Lafourche and Terrebonne parishes.

PAT AND KATE BRADY FAMILY FOUNDATION (2000)

The Pat and Kate Brady Family Foundation was established to fund their philanthropic interests in Lafourche and Terrebonne parishes.

FERTEL FAMILY FOUNDATION (2000)

The Fertel Family Foundation was established by Randy Fertel, son of the late Ruth Fertel, founder of the famous Ruth's Chris Steak House restaurant chain. The Fertel Family Foundation supports numerous nonprofit organizations, with a special emphasis on culinary education and the arts.

LOUISIANA PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA ENDOWMENT TRUST (1998)

As an endowed trust, the Louisiana Philharmonic Endowment Trust supports the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra in perpetuity.

DJR FOUNDATION (1997)

The DJR Foundation was established by Shirley and Robert Haspel and named for their three sons, David, John, and Robert. This foundation is an active supporter of early childhood and education programs.

FRANK B. STEWART FOUNDATION (1993)

The Frank B. Stewart Foundation was founded by Frank B. Stewart, Jr., chairman of Stewart Enterprises. The foundation supports various nonprofit organizations with an emphasis on youth and education.

ALBERT N. & HATTIE M. MCCLURE FUND (1963)

The McClure Fund was established in 1963 to support emergency building projects for United Way partner agencies.

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS

Many donors have established funds that are totally unrestricted or have quite broad purposes, giving the Greater New Orleans Foundation flexibility in the way the income is used. GROWTH OF ASSETS in millions

The Greater New Orleans Foundation annually engages the services of an independent accounting firm to perform an audit of the Foundation's financial statements. As part of its audit, the firm also reviews the internal controls and various policies and procedures to ensure Foundation staff is adhering to the most current accounting practices. The Foundation's auditor, LaPorte, CPAs & Business Advisors, has issued an unqualified opinion on the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013.

100 YEARS OF EXPANDING POSSIBILITIES

2014 marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of the first community foundation by Cleveland banker Frederic Goff, who envisioned a permanent endowment to benefit his neighbors for generations to come. Since then, 1,600 community foundations have been established worldwide, including the Greater New Orleans Foundation in 1983 to improve the quality of life in the 13-parish area we serve. Every day we partner with individuals, families, and businesses to create charitable funds that help meet the challenges of changing times.
