THE GREATER NEW ORLEANS FOUNDATION

The New Orleans Black Mardi Gras Indian Cooperative is an innovative business start-up designed to help the creators of Black Mardi Gras Indian suits to develop a profitable market for their products while simultaneously building the world's awareness of the cultural significance of their "brand." Housed in NewCorp's Arts and Cultural Incubator, the Black Mardi Gras Indian Cooperative will hire its first director through a grant from the Greater New Orleans Foundation.

Like you, the Greater New Orleans Foundation is committed to building a resilient, vibrant, and sustainable community in which individuals and families flourish and our region's special character is celebrated and preserved. We work by partnering with people passionate about giving—turning their gifts into effective action, linking them with the grassroots organizations that are transforming this place we call home.

We're here to help you make the most of your philanthropy, whether in this lifetime or as an enduring legacy for generations to come.

We hope that the people you'll see in these pages will inspire you to reflect on your own charitable goals and rekindle the passion for giving within you.

THAT'S WHY WE'RE HERE.

GiveNOLA Day is our 24-hour giving event that inspires friends from around the world to contribute as many dollars as possible to support the work of our region's nonprofits. On May 5, 2015, GiveNOLA Day generated 34,546 gifts and $4,047,161 to support 571 nonprofits working in arts and culture, animal welfare, community improvement, education, environment, health, housing, human services, public safety, and youth development. Participating nonprofits serve Orleans, Jefferson, Lafourche, Plaquemines, St. Bernard, St. Charles, St. John the Baptist, St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, and Terrebonne parishes. Now that's teamwork!

"Everyone can be a philanthropist."

EMERGING PHILANTHROPISTS OF NEW ORLEANS

Emerging Philanthropists of New Orleans engages young professionals in a six-month program to pool funds, work together in teams, and make grants to address issues they care about. Since its inception, EPNO has graduated 200 participants who have donated more than $200,000 to 43 nonprofits. In 2015, EPNO expanded to include 50 participants—its largest class to date. Co-chairs CHANDLER NUTIK, founder of Community Works of Louisiana, a youth-serving nonprofit, and LELIA GOWLAND, president of Gowland, LLC, a consulting firm, exemplify the next generation of philanthropists.

You've just read about donors whose families, experiences and values have shaped their giving.

THE CENTER FOR PHILANTHROPY...

A PHILANTHROPIC HEART FOR OUR COMMUNITY.

> Our new Center for Philanthropy, which will open its doors in 2016, will not only serve as the Foundation's new home, but as the headquarters for collaborative responses to the challenges and opportunities facing the Greater New Orleans region.

10 REASONS WHY:

- 1. Individuals and families will open charitable funds to support causes and charities they're passionate about.
- 2. National foundations will develop innovative solutions to community challenges with local partners.
- 3. Business, government, and nonprofits will create workforce models resulting in hundreds of job placements in healthcare and manufacturing.
- 4. Corporations will establish employee-led giving programs.
- 5. Nonprofits will become more effective by attending weekly workshops and trainings on board governance, advocacy, financial management, and other topics.
- 6. Professional advisors and their clients will discuss tax advantages for complex gifts.
- 7. Foundation staff will review hundreds of grant applications for highly competitive grant opportunities.
- 8. Donors will receive up-to-the-minute information about critical issues such as our disappearing coastline, public education reform, and escalating levels of violence.
- 9. Hundreds of regional nonprofits will receive promotional and fundraising information for a successful GiveNOLA Day campaign.
- 10. Green infrastructure such as underground cisterns and rain gardens will be incorporated throughout.

SUPPORTING SECOND CHANCES

Ex-offenders may have paid their debt to society, but they still face formidable odds. Without a job and a place to live it's easy for them to end up back behind bars. That's why TERRY WILLIAMS sought out Goodwill upon his release from prison. "They gave me a chance when I had no one else," said Williams, who is a participant in Goodwill's reintegration program, funded in part through the Greater New Orleans Foundation's IMPACT program.

To view a complete list of all 161 organizations receiving IMPACT grants totaling $5 million since 2009, please visit gnof.org/program/impact

INVESTING IN GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE

The Greater New Orleans Foundation is working with the City of New Orleans, the Sewerage and Water Board, national foundations, and nonprofit partners to bring innovative water management solutions to protect the place we call home. This includes collaborating with new stormwater manager for the City of New Orleans, PRISCA WEEMS; investing in entrepreneurial solutions to how we live with water through a partnership with the Idea Village and Propeller in the annual Water Challenge; and, educating local leaders on stormwater management practices through the Urban Water Series.

INVESTING IN NONPROFIT LEADERS

Created by the Greater New Orleans Foundation to build organizational effectiveness, the Executive Director Leadership Intensive gives visionary nonprofit leaders the skills they need to manage more effectively. "Like many executive directors, I have a passion for the work, not a degree in nonprofit management. The Executive Director Leadership Intensive greatly enriched my skillset," said

DARCY MCKINNON, executive director, New Orleans Video Access Center.

TRAINING TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE

One of the Greater New Orleans Foundation's most successful programs, New Orleans Works (NOW) identifies entry-level employment opportunities and trains jobseekers to fill them. NOW's newest offering is a year-long training in medical coding and billing, developed in partnership with DAUGHTERS OF CHARITY New Orleans. Graduates will receive national certification qualifying them to work in this rapidly growing field. Since its inception, New Orleans Works (NOW) has successfully trained and placed more than 200 workers who now have the skills to move up within their field of work.

"I'm proud to support the Greater New Orleans Foundation because of the role it plays as a convener. The Foundation has the unique ability to bring together nonprofit, government, and business leaders to address our region's challenges."

- Bob Brown

OUR PARTNERS IN PHILANTHROPY

Contributions to our Partners in Philanthropy campaign enable the Foundation to direct significant sums of money to important community projects. These gifts cover the Foundation's operating expenses and enable it to continue its role of connecting donors to community needs.
