BOB BURTNES

In 1938 Bob Burtness was born here in Santa Barbara. He earned the rank of Eagle in 1954 as a member of Troop 16.

Upon graduation from what is now Claremont McKenna College, Bob joined the Air Force and spent over five years in Texas, New Jersey and Greece. This was followed by a 30 year career of teaching English.

Burtness worked as a staff member in two different scout camps, including Rancho Alegre in the nature and aquatics areas and is currently a BSA merit badge counselor. A favorite pursuit of Bob has been with the U.S. Forest Service as a Volunteer Wilderness Ranger.
